'Spy Pilot's' Dad Cancels Russia Trip

'Outside Advice' Causes Virginian To Change Mind

POUND, Va. (UPI) — Oliver Powers, father of captured U-2 spy pilot Francis G. Powers, abruptly postponed plans for a trip to Russia today after receiving "outside advice."

Powers, 55-year-old shoe repairman, authorized his close friend, Norton businessman Sol Cury, to issue this statement:

"THE TRIP IS canceled for the time being until it will be more advantageous to Powers' son's life and welfare."

Cury would not elaborate on the statement and Powers, working at his shoe repair shop in nearby Norton, would not talk to reporters about his decision.

Cury, who operates a department store across the street from Powers' shop, said the decision was reached early today after Powers received a telephone call and "outside advice."

CURY DECLINED to say who made the call and gave the advice.

"He (Powers) asked me if I wanted to know and I told him I did not," Cury said.

Powers said earlier he hoped to leave for Russia, where his son is imprisoned, in about five weeks. He received a letter from the Soviet embassy in Washington Friday, advising that it was ready to grant him a visa to visit the Soviet Union.

SOVIET PREMIER Nikita Khrushchev told Powers in a cable earlier in the week he would do everything he could to help him if he came to Russia. The letter told Powers to submit an application, two photographs and his passport and the visa would then be granted quickly.

China Red Nix Firing 'Schedule'

TAIPEI (UPI)—Chinese Communist coastal artillery facing Quemoy today broke a long-observed number day cease-fire and unleashed the biggest bombardment against the Nationalists this year, the defense ministry announced.

YARDWORK PROVES COSTLY FOR LOOTED MECCA CITIZEN

MECCA — George LeRoy Taft, of 64-655 Highway 111 here, had his yard raked and his house cleaned while he was gone recently — but the cost was high. Whoever did the deed, sheriff's deputies at Indio report, broke the rake handle — and stole approximately $543 worth of furnishings from the house.

Taft told officers he was gone from his house for approximately two and a half hours at mid-day when the burglary occurred. When he returned, he found the front door stop and frame splintered.

Officers, still investigating the case Friday, reported rake marks indicated the lookout man was raking the yard while the house was cleaned of easily movable valuables. Taft added the culprit broke the rake handle.

3 Hearings Set For Supervisors At Monday Meet

Three public hearings of interest to Desert area residents are scheduled before the Board of Supervisors at its meeting Monday in the county courthouse in Riverside.

All set for 10 a.m. — and following one another — they are: —Appeal of Anna F. Lewis from denial of a variance to re-establish a restaurant in Indian Wells District.

—Abandonment of portions of the highway known as San Luis Rey Drive and San Luis Rey Plaza in Fourth Road District.

—Appeal of J. E. Gurley from conditions for approval of map of Tract 2076.

Other matters before the board include a recommendation to execute a freeway agreement for Highways 60-70 between Coachella Canal and Cactus City; request of purchasing agent to execute an agreement with Jess Gardner, Inc., for plastering hangar at Thermal Airport; certification of county clerk of sufficiency of signatures, etc., on the petition for incorporation of Cathedral City, and petition for widening of Paintbrush Street in Palm Desert.

San Diego Hit By Sharp 'Quake'

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — A sharp earthquake rocked the San Diego area for almost 11 minutes Friday but experts differed on whether it was linked to recent Chilean earth upheavals.

CEREMONIES MARKING the start of the first section of the planned $60-million Halecrest Country Club Village were held yesterday at Palm Desert, with civic and business leaders from this area in attendance. Featured in the project is the grouping of 14 homes around a swimming pool and recreation area, with each homeowner owning an undivided interest in the pool and recreational facilities at no added cost. A modern shopping center, golf course, hospital and convalescent facilities also are planned. Pictured on the platform during the ceremonies are, left to right, Supervisor George Berkeley; Gordon L. Mounts, who acted as master of ceremonies; Congressman D. S. Saund, who spoke on a "Program for America's Senior Citizens;" and Harry Goldberger, executive vice president of Golconda Development Co., co-developer of the project with the Hale Co. of Anaheim. TURKS CAN'T FIND ATROCITIES PROOF

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI) — The ruling military junta admitted today it lacked firm information to support Gen. Cemal Gursel's charges that the ousted regime of Premier Adnan Menderes was guilty of atrocities against Turkish students.

A spokesman for the national unity committee said "many" army officers had been suspended but he refused to specify the number or the reasons.

IT HAD BEEN reported that at least five generals were arrested for ordering troops to fire on students demonstrating against the Menderes regime before the coup May 27.

Gursel said Friday that "much evidence has been found" of atrocities by the Menderes regime. He said some of the bodies of students killed in the demonstrations were used as animal feed.

BUT THE spokesman today said the committee "was not yet in a position to answer" whether anyone had actually found a body to back up the charges.

Turkish newspapers had used their biggest headlines to banner the charges by Gursel, leader of the coup and head of the ruling junta.

"We have no firm information on these things concerning the disposal of the bodies of dead students," committee spokesman Col. Ertugrul Altali told newsmen.

"Many reports are reaching us and an investigation committee is at work on this matter. We are awaiting its report."

Driver Escapes Injury in Crash

ENDIO — Robert Polk, 22, of Eagle Mountain, escaped with no personal injury but two citations and a wrecked car when his automobile tore out 40 feet of guard rail and four supporting posts of a bridge 2.3 miles west of Hayfield Street on Highway 60-70 at 10:45 p.m. Friday.

The California Highway Patrol reported Polk apparently fell asleep at the wheel, and veered into the railing. He was cited for "excessive speed for conditions," and for failure to have a driver's license in his possession.

Voters without transportation are asked to call the Republican headquarters, FA 4-2808 or FA 4-2763.

Nikita 'Childlike'

'Ike Should've Taught You,' Regans Cable Khrushchev

By PEYTON CANARY

Phil Regan, recent singing voice of the United Steelworkers of America, and internationally known lyric tenor star of radio and motion pictures, joined his wife Wednesday afternoon in wiring Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev that "you would have never carried over your nursery habits into the summit conference, and made such a laughing stock of yourself before the entire world."

Had President Eisenhower taught the Russian leader when he was a child.

The handsome ex-Brooklyn policeman who became a radio and motion picture idol, and who has been identified as a personal friend of national Democratic leaders as well as steelworker chief David J. MacDonald, sent the wire with his wife terming Khrushchev's outbursts "childlike." They signed their names, and added "just two Americans."

for role in the settling of the recent national steel strikes, sent the wire in answer to Khrushchev's earlier tirade against President Eisenhower, terming the American chief executive "unfit" for leadership.

The Russian dictator said that if President Eisenhower were in Russia, he would be put in charge of a kindergarten where he could do less damage.

THE REGANS concluded by asking "May almighty God help you — only He can." The full text of the wire read:

"What a pity that President Eisenhower, with his love for mankind, and desire for peace and freedom for all peoples could not have taught you when you were a child."

"Had you been so fortunate, you would have never carried over your nursery habits into the summit conference and made such a laughing stock of yourself before the entire world."

Note Protests 'Two-Faced' Cuba Attitude

Cuban President Called Liar in Sharp Statement

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States today charged Cuba with conducting a two-faced "campaign of slander" against this country.

It issued a nine-point indictment of rebel Premier Fidel Castro's government "to set the record straight."

IN A NOTE delivered to the Cuban Foreign Office by Ambassador Philip Bonsal, the United States said the "Cuban regime seeks to sow distrust and animosity, despite its protestations that it seeks friendship and understanding."

The State Department said the statement was released at this time in part because of the bitterly anti-U.S. remarks being made by Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos during his current visit to several Latin American countries.

THE STATEMENT flatly charged that Dorticos lied when he said recently in Uruguay that property of United States citizens in Cuba had not been confiscated but had been paid for.

"To our knowledge not a single American property owner has been reimbursed for the lands taken from him," the U. S. note said.

Rhee Had Dictator-Style Rule, Lost Touch with Common People

By DON KLOTZBUCHER
Managing Editor

Dr. Syngman Rhee operated a dictator - style type of government and lost touch with the common people.

And these common people — this time the students — rose up in revolt in the true tradition of Korean love of independence and hate of oppression.

WINFIELD AND Dr. Grace Song Line, after visiting Rhee in Korea in 1956 at his presidential palace, also had many guests at their hotel suite — leaders in the longtime fight against Japanese oppression, many who had experienced jail and torture as did Dr. Line.

"We were told that there were spies watching the suite we stayed in, the same suite General Van Fleet had while he was there. The constant stream of visitors — from early morning to late at night — brought many recollections of previous days, but only one or two persons were actually unafraid to speak their mind there, because of the possibility the room was wired."

ONE OF THE persons the Lines made it a point to visit was John Chang, recognized leader of the Democratic (People's) Party of Korea, who served as Vice President of Korea for four years and who was defeated by Lee Ki Poong in the much-questioned March 1960 election, which brought about Rhee's downfall.

Chang was ignored by Rhee during his term of office, and actually maintained private guard to protect himself from possible assassination. The Lines went to his home, were admitted through guarded gates, twice, before they got to see a man Dr. Line had known for some time and who Mr. Line was to meet for the first time.

While they were there the U. S. Economic Coordinator also announced plans to resign because he "couldn't get along with Dr. Rhee's policies."

Beck's PlayerStagers Ready 'Damn Yankees'

By GEORGE LAINE

Martin Beck's PlayerStage troops, unheard from since they evacuated the Plaza Theater two months ago, are back at their old tricks, particularly the trick they do best — musical comedy. Villagers will have an opportunity to view the handwork of the Beck forces when they unleash "Damn Yankees" in the Convention Hall of the Riviera Hotel on July 1.

THE SHOW IS THE first attempt at a musical within the confines of the Riviera but that's no cause for trepidation. Last season the PlayerStage folks got together the spiciest, most lovable, best-staged piece of business I've seen here in the line of musicals here when they did "Kiss Me Kate" on the stage of the Chi Chi's Starlite Room. It seems reasonable to believe that the Beck company will be able to compile the same sort of treatment for the baseball fantasy.

BECK HAS ROUNDED up some of his cast for the effort and figures to go up with a total of 25 actors and a chorus line. He says that he has only begun to cast so the advice from this corner would be that if you feel you have talent along musical comedy lines and would like a chance to be heard, contact Martin Beck immediately. Rehearsals are to be held in the Riviera's convention hall from now until the night of the production on July 1.

"THE 'DAMN YANKEE' venture will mark the first of a scheduled series of musicals by the PlayerStage company in the Riviera, Beck said. Still under consideration for future programming are such time-tested and well-loved efforts as "South Pacific," "Finian's Rainbow" and "Paint Your Wagon." Even if Broadway can't keep

Eger Eyes New Film
HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Producer Raymond Eger says he is considering a new film to be shot in Paris. He says he will not announce its title and subject matter until all agreements have been signed. Eger has just finished filming "Blood and Roses" in Rome. He says he hopes he can begin work on the new Paris film in four months.

its lights on, Palm Springs can — and Martin Beck is the ideal Villager to throw the switch.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: The re-entry of PlayerStage into the local theater scene coupled with the announcement of the Playhouse Guild that it may resume stage productions next season, once again brings to three the total of Palm Springs legitimate theatrical organizations.

Although this is a theater-goer's delight, it also creates a highly competitive situation, and, consequently, a question. I'm inclined to agree with the observation of Mrs. W. F. Schlotman, a staunch supporter of the Playhouse Guild, who has consistently attended the Ferals Playhouse this winter. She said: "It is unthinkable that a little Village like this can successfully run two or three theaters."

The answers ought to be in by this time next year.

Veteran at the Art
HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Actor Donald Crisp marks his 54th anniversary in the motion picture business this summer with the release of Walt Disney's "Pollyanna."

Crisp appeared first in a "movie" in 1906 in a mutoscope, a hand-cranked machine that flipped cards. Since then he has made 417 motion pictures.

Teen-Angels Prep Premiere Of 'House of Usher' Here

The world premiere of Edgar Allan Poe's "House of Usher" will be presented at 8:30 p.m., June 18, in the Plaza Theater here as a Teen-Angels project for the benefit of the Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic at Desert Hot Springs.

Presented under the auspices of the Angel View's Teen-Angels, the premiere is the largest fund-raising operation to date for the organization.

THE AMERICAN — International release stars Vincent Price, Mark Damon and Myrna Fahey in a filmed re-creation of the famous Poe mystery tale.

At least two of the stars—Damon and Miss Fahey — will be on hand here on June 18 for the premiere. Ed "Kookie" Byrne has also accepted an invitation to attend and other stars are also being approached at this time. The possibility that Price, star of the film and a featured speaker on the Community Forum series here last spring, may attend is still being explored.

YOUNG DAMON, one of Hollywood's brightest new stars materials, has been associated with the Angel View project and the Teen-Angels since he crowned Miss Bonnie Blackstone following last year's Teen-Angel contest.

A buffet dinner — in the Riviera Hotel here — has been scheduled preceding the film.

Tickets for the premiere may be purchased from any Teen-Angel from the Plaza Theater box office or by calling FA 9-3225.

National Council Of Churches Hits All Mass Media

NEW YORK (UPI) — A National Council of Churches study commission says movies, television and radio too often live up to their potential to degrade man, manipulate him and educate him in false systems of value.

"The image of man that comes through in much contemporary fare... is often poles apart from the Christian understanding of man and his purpose," it said in a report on mass media to the general board meeting here.

The 34-member commission said it was not speaking "merely of the pathological preoccupation with sex."

Your Heart Throb?

WASHINGTON, D. C. — On the theory that pulse-taking rather than poll-taking is the way to predict elections in this country, there are these matters which might affect the national heartbeat in reference to important persons:

Chivalry Not Dead: It is often said of Senator Stuart Symington that his courtly manners give the impression that he's got little else to offer — that he's superficial. But manners are only the outward expression of good will and good breeding, and the other day Symington showed that these gentlemanly traits are not merely on the surface.

WITH ADLAI Stevenson not around to defend himself, Minority Leader Dirksen, on the Senate floor, let go an attack on the titular head of the Democratic party by citing a French-language interview which seemed to show Stevenson as an appeaser. Soon Senator Jack Kennedy came under a similar barrage of soft — on — the — Reds insinuations — and nobody on the floor was profiting more than Symington.

All Symington had to do was sit still and keep quiet while two rivals for the Democratic nomination, Stevenson and Kennedy, were getting their lumps.

BUT, INSTEAD — up got Symington with some documentary rebuttals. He took both his rivals off the horns of the angry Minority Leader. Later, I asked Symington why he would do such an impractical thing as that in a campaign season. His explanation was simple but self-sufficient:

"They were a couple of friends of mine who weren't around to take their own parts."

THE INDESTRUCTIBLE Man:

Most defeated Presidential candidates just fade away. Stevenson seems to be taking longer than usual, but Thomas Dewey is hardly in the public eye at all, and Alf Landon's recent photograph with Mrs. Roosevelt and Norman Thomas caused many to wonder if the 1936 GOP loser hadn't returned from Another World.

But if Richard Nixon doesn't become the next President, he will still remain very much in public affairs. Nixon has said that whenever he leaves politics, he will work at making some real money for his young family. This is no doubt his intention, but Nixon is far too valuable for any Administration to let slip through its fingers.

A ROCKEFELLER Administration could not find a better piece of seasoned Cabinet material anywhere.

Curiously, Nixon has warmer friends among the Democratic candidates than he has among his intraparty rivals of the GOP. The Vice President served in the House with Kennedy and Johnson, two cogent economists of brain power who would never willingly let the Vice President escape from the commonwealth of American Government.

THE LIGHT AND THE Bushel: Republican leaders, feeling that Nixon is injured by President Eisenhower's image as a peace-monger, are glad enough to have Governor Rockefeller as draft-bait for the GOP nomination. He has made an excellent Governor to date, but his reputation has not been borne out in one important respect.

Unlike most political liberals, Rockefeller is willing to run a Welfare State — but only if the people will pay-as-they-go in taxes. He has shown a willingness to be unpopular, if necessary, to remain fiscally chaste and sound.

BUT ROCKEFELLER'S up-stage act in declining to consider the Vice Presidential post and his threats to boycott the Convention are risky investments that may pay off in ill-will.

True, in 1960 the Republicans need Rockefeller — but by 1964 some rising Republicans, like Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon, Congressman Bruce Alger of Dallas, Texas, Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona, will be of Presidential timber. The man from New York who hides his light under a bushel may not find the GOP swooning with the same affection as now.

THIS WAY OUT: Practically everything since World War II has gone up — prices, salaries, the size of the Union — except one thing: The idea of One World, which many people mistakenly embraced, has proved to be an armful of sawdust.

Almost no American, come to think of it, wants to forfeit his citizenship in the USA, or wants to make the USA a silk-stocking precinct, squeezed and out-voted on every side by the reeking slums of Africa and Asia, or even of Europe and Latin America. But one aspirant to the White House apparently did not get the message.

IN A RECENT debate on the theme called National Purpose, Adlai Stevenson quoted the General Welfare clause of the American Constitution in his first paragraph, and in his second paragraph, he gave this bit of globalism, which explains quite succinctly why the American people will never elect him as their President. Stevenson said:

"Add Tom Paine's words — 'My country is the World'..."

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Watching the ponies
Is a lot of fun.
Maybe no profit
But a day in the sun

That's right. The sun usually breaks through the overcast before post time.

HAVING NO OTHER obligations Thursday, Mrs. G. and Mollie, a life-long friend of the family, decided we'd go to Hollywood.

I agreed because I like to go to the races. There are always so many surprises, you never know what's going to happen.

We buy that special parking. I can't walk too far.

THEN, THERE'S the escalator to the club house. That's the first gamble. Will I make it?

But Mollie and Mrs. G. get behind me. I lean forward like a sprinter on the marks, grab the railing and put out my foot. With four hands on my back I don't fall backwards.

Getting off is another hassle. With no one in front, I am propelled clear across the floor to the newstand. Having banged into that, I have to buy a paper although the girls have every bit of race information printed, fastened together with a jumbo clip.

NEXT COMES the selection of seats. Not the back row. Two or three down. I don't like people breathing down my neck or hanging me on the head.

Once I turned around to sit down after a thriller and found a short guy standing on my seat. Ignoring the fact that my hat was there.

He was trying to read the prices on the tote board.

THEN THE GIRLS retire to a quiet corner of the club house and delve into what I thought was an oversize handbag. But it contains sandwiches and a thermos bottle. I am embarrassed because of all of the eating places around.

But after discovering that hot dogs are 35 cents, up from a dime a few years back and refreshments 85 cents (a buck plus gratuities) I join them hoping none of my friends from Palm Springs are there.

THOSE TUNA SANDWICHES and the slightly spiked orange juice from the thermos bottle make me forget any embarrassment.

Then comes the business of the day. I have a system wherein I never lose.

First, there's transportation, $6.2 miles at 10 cents, $3.62; programs, 75 cents; Inglewood City taxes on my passes, 30 cents; three beverages smuck in when they weren't looking, $3.00; Eight races at $2.00 each, $16.00; $33.67. (They pay the parking.)

SO ANYTHING I go home with is profit.

I know a lot of people who spend many times $33.67 in a smoke-filled night club and look for the ice pack the next morning.

Me, after a day in the invigorating open, I feel fine with no more regrets than why did I bet on that goat in the fifth and why in heck didn't I bet so — and — so in the seventh. He was my morning pick. How come I got touted off him?

Like I say, a big day and a lot of fun. I came home with

DICK WEST:

Smoking Etiquette

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — I think I will award this week's "It's about time" citation to Miss Helen Hart, a consumer services director for the Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp.

The citation is a sort of decoration I have devised as a means of giving recognition to people who do something that should have been done a long time ago.

IT CONSISTS OF a parchment scroll bearing the imprint of an hourglass on a field of bitten-off fingernails. You'll find a bit of symbolism in the design in you look hard enough.

Miss Hart deserves a citation, I believe, for having drawn up what possibly is the first set of rules of female smoking etiquette.

This Emily Post of the nicotine habit puts down in black and white a policy that I have long advocated orally: If women are going to smoke, and it sure looks like most of them are going to, they should carry their own cigarettes.

"ALWAYS ACCEPT the cigarette that is offered to you—even though it is not your brand," she writes. "On the next round, be sure to offer your own brand; that way you'll avoid having to reject another offer, and be doing your share of the 'treating.'"

I am grateful to Miss Hart for making a definite point of etiquette out of what has heretofore been only a vague economic issue. However, I would have to quarrel with her ranking system.

SHE LISTS THIS admonition as No. 3 on her etiquette set. I feel it should be made the cardinal rule and, if necessary, enacted into law. I also have some misgivings about her No. 4 rule.

"Let your escort light your cigarette," it says. "Many women are too quick to do the job themselves — why not keep this gentlemanly custom alive?"

I think this is a custom most gentlemen would just as soon drop and I was glad that Miss Hart softened the rule with an amendment: "don't demand a light if one is not offered; this simply points up a man's lack of a courtesy."

I COULD NAME off-hand a half dozen women of my acquaintance who seem to delight in pointing up my lack of alertness. Generally, they do this in some demure manner, like calling out "hey, slob, how about a light?"

The rest of Miss Hart's rules are fairly routine pointers on how to hold cigarettes gracefully between the first joints off the index and second fingers, how to inhale, no short, nervous puffs and how to dispose of ashes, put the cigarette slowly but ah so so deliberately.

I wish, however, that she had added one more rule to the effect that a lady should always remove a cigarette from her mouth when she is about to be kissed.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Specs Will Win Out

HOLLYWOOD — Television's Emmy nominations for awards this year certainly lead us to believe that the specs will win out over the series nominations. Somehow it doesn't seem fair to group them together. The specs have the advantages of bigger budgets and more preparation time. It would be like choosing between Ben-Hur and some short subject travelog for Oscar of the year!

Ed Sullivan's about to sign Dean Jones for three return guest shots — and this is the guy MGM wouldn't let sing a note when they had him under contract!

ART CARNEY WILL be the actor to watch this fall season. He's come into great demand since most of the producers have learned what a fine and dedicated actor he really is. He never devotes less than four weeks of concentrated preparation and rehearsal to a TV spec. As a result, Art will be getting the nod to do the Fred Allen Story and one based on the late Al Smith. Art is most excited about doing the TV version of Come Back, Little Sheba with none other than Shirley Booth.

We're not believing those reports that TV is finished in New York — that is, not till Bert Parks buys a Hollywood home.

JUST WHEN WE thought the feud between Jim (Maverick) Garner and Warner Bros. was nearing an end, we learn that Jim took off with his press agent on a 10-day p.a. tour. And Warner's wants to know more about that!

Perhaps westerns are coming to an end on TV — or at least down a peg or two. There was only one nomination for an Emmy among them — for Dick Boone in Have Gun, Will Travel!

GOERGE DE WITT has come up with a horror series that should get definite P-T-A approval — it's about a friendly werewolf who brings all his blood to the Red Cross!

If the webs want to puff up their daytime color schedule, the last 39 episodes of Superman, starring the late George Reeves, were all filmed in Technicolor back in 1958.

News out is that Time magazine is getting ready to make the TV splash with documentaries on current events — remember The March of Time in the old radio days?

A GAGSTER SUGGESTED to Lew Ayres he make Mack, the Knife theme for his Dr. Kildare series. "Sure," said Lew. "If Bobby Darin goes with the deal!"

For all of you who have hoped for a change in movie fare — from the sordid to the comic — your point has been made with the tickets you've been buying for Hollywood's comedies. Universal has just announced "Operation Petticoat" is their studio's all-time grosser with $7,000,000 already in and with foreign countries still to be heard from.

YES SIR, COMEDY is again riding high after about 15 years in the doldrums. Walt Disney's

"Shaggy Dog" was the real turning point. Made for less than a million, it's expected to hit a domestic gross of 11 million with an additional 4.5 million from foreign distribution. Let the movie companies run out of comedy ideas, why not let the studios know which re-makes you'd like to see.

Attention movie producers: The book, Ingrid Bergman, An Intimate Portrait in paperback is in its third printing totaling 750,000 copies. Also eight foreign translations are out. An enterprising producer might sign Ingrid to enact herself in the movie version and have one of the blockbusters of all time!

THERE WILL BE NO less than SIX big 70m m spectacles competing for hard-ticket business this fall. The movies audiences will be like a little kid in a candy store and should be very happy. Some of the producers might wish they hadn't all rushed in at the same time. From here, it looks like Spartacus and Exodus will be the ones to give Ben-Hur the competition. We're betting our current gas bill that Diane Vanis will be back at work before the summer's out. She's waiting in San Francisco now.

THE ALL-STAR movie, Pepe, will also include Judy Garland—but her voice only. While she sings, The Far Away Part of Town, you'll be watching Shirley Jones and Dan Dailey twirl around the dancing floor.

Doris Day, a long hold-out, will do her first TV spec this fall. Reason: Since she doesn't sing a note in U-I's Midnight Lace, the spec will accomplish the movie promotion her records usually take care of.

A Warner Bros. employee was heard saying: "I'm really anxious to see Dore Schary's baseball movie, Sunrise For Campa-nella."

QUOTES

LONDON—The Daily Mail on bare-shouldered photographs of honeymooning Princess Margaret:

"You have not seen Princess Margaret looking quite like this before nor, one may confidently predict, will you ever do so in public, and in Britain."

NORTON, Va.—Oliver Powers, father of U-2 pilot Francis Powers shot down over Russia, disclosing the last line of a telegram he received from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev:

"If you come to the Soviet Union, I will do everything I can do help you."

NEW YORK — Actress Helen Hayes on the contract dispute that has closed Broadway theaters:

"There must be more mutual respect between the producers and the actors. The minimum salary is too low. And the stars get too much. Producers can't make a fortune out of the theater. Only the stars seem to make money."

Around the World...

NEW YORK — Around the world in 80 glances:

The microphone-laden Great Seal of the United States, which the Soviets kindly presented to our Embassy in Moscow some years ago (several former Ambassadors seemed eager to claim victimization when Ambassador Lodge revealed the fraud in the UN debate over U-2) was not the first nor last attempt to "bug" our offices and residences in that country.

The F. B. I. discovered years ago that the great chandelier in the main reception hall of Spaso House, the residence of American Ambassadors in Moscow, was bugged. An Embassy chauffeur told me in 1957 that there had been an attempt to put a mike and diminutive recording machine in one of Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson's cars.

IT MUST HAVE been duly noted by the good people of Cuba that the country which their leader almost nightly flays on television as an avowed enemy of the Latin American world was the first and until now only nation in the hemisphere to rush to the aid of the sufferers of the Chilean earthquakes.

We immediately launched an airlift of doctors, nurses, medicines and food comparable almost to that which sustained Berlin during the Blockade 1948-49.

At a time when we're being pilloried by the Soviets in UN and by Castro and his bearded henchmen to the south of us, a simple act of mercy such as we've shown in Chile must say more to the world than a thousand self-spoken protestations of our generosity. It must deflate 10,000 lies.

THE ADMIRABLE speech President Eisenhower made on radio and TV the other night, defending the American stand in the U-2 case and suggesting common sense dealings with the Soviet Union in the future, was not heard nor seen nor read by the Soviet people. On the other hand, everything Mr. Gromyko said about us, including his uncommonly hysterical outburst of late Friday, was absorbed by the American people.

If that single fact could be gotten over to the Russian people it would have enormous impact. It would cut through that distressing little curtain that they drop between themselves and the visitor at a precise point when the visitor's understanding of any question differs from what they have been told since childhood.

Censorship is vile in peacetime. It must be classed as the first resort, not the last, of a desperately uncertain regime. Our problem is to get through to millions of people who, for the most part, do not even know that they are being deprived of the massive realisation of truth.

AS IS THE case with England, there will always be a press agent. Jackie Gleason's tub thumper is a nice bloke named Pete McGovern. Here's a sample of his work:

"Jackie Gleason dreamed of the kidnapping of Jackie Gleason for $1,000,000, has written the story, and is adapting it with Andy Russell's help for CBS-TV to star in this fall on CBS-TV. Jackie also composed the theme music for the 30-minute drama."

"HE IS ALSO casting the piece and overseeing the making of the sets, one of which will be a replica of Toots Shor's old bar, about which Gleason is an expert."

"In his spare time Jackie laid out a complete advertisement campaign for the '$1,000,000 incident' right down to the designs and art work..."

The whole dream — theme reminds me of a threat, real, some years ago to kidnap a well-known New Yorker who is rather diminutive physically, compared to Gleason. The plot was led to the aforementioned Shor, who promptly scoffed at the notion. "Don't laugh," a guy from the underworld told Toots. "This is for real. We found the perfect guy to snatch. He's rich and if it looks like we're being closed in on, we can always pick him up and run with him."

TOOTS KEPT shaking his head. "You're nuts," he said.

"All right," the guy said, "Gimme one reason why we're nuts." Toots shrugged and said what I always thought was an unkind thing: "Who could you contact for the ransom?"

JUNE 4, 1950

Palm Springs voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to cast their ballots in 13 precincts, the largest number in the history of the city with almost 4,000 voters eligible to vote. Greatest interest lies in the supervisory contest where four are seeking the post to be vacated by Collis Mayflower. They are Everett Earl of Banning, Helen Hester and Homer Varner of Indio, and Robert Ellsworth of Palm Village. Palm Springs will have music next season, official music from a 50-piece Civic Band which started plans rolling at an enthusiastic organization meeting this week. Gustave Patzner will be director of the Adult Evening School sponsored program.

JUNE 4, 1940

The Crysline Lime and Ore Company of Los Angeles has obtained a 20 year lease on property near the Palm Springs Depot. A new road is now being built from the new Palm Springs cutoff to the deposit. A force of 10 men is to be put at work mining the deposit as soon as the road is completed, it is reported. The deposit has been estimated to contain 57 million tons of lime 98 per cent pure, with the company expecting to ship a carload a day to Los Angeles. A steam shovel, compressor and trucks are to be used in the mining operation.

JUNE 4, 1930

Two trucks loaded with hay burned on the state highway a short distance east of Garnet. One truck and its cow fodder caught fire while moving. In passing another truck, the hay on the other truck caught fire, and a total loss resulted in both cases. Traffic was blocked for an hour, due to the intense heat.

Editorial Page — Guesses on the routing of the Los Angeles aqueduct are still fashionable. Soon the question will be settled, and it is likely there will be a big celebration in the San Geronimo Pass.

Frank Day, The Voice of radio station KDES, made a personal appearance in Las Vegas this week at the Little Chapel around The Corner, but he shared the billing with dark-eyed Katie Nelson, owner of Nelsons Mens shop here.

The couple recited their vows in a double ring ceremony Tuesday afternoon, with Ruth and Morrie Avery and Peggy Cox as wedding attendants. Fran Ligier was there too for the wedding and for the champagne wedding dinner at the Sahara afterwards.

The bride wore a gown with a white lace over cocoa bodice and a bouffant skirt of cocoa color peau de soie.

Waiting at the airport to meet them was a group of about 30 friends, armed with rice and champagne and good wishes. Cliff Miller made a late arrival with

Spend Week in San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mullins of 1351 South Calle Marcus go north this weekend for a week in San Francisco.

GRANDCHILDREN surrounded Phil Regan, when he celebrated his birthday at the Regans' Via Miralente home last weekend. The eleven youngsters, shown here with their grandparents, are the children of Joe and Bud Regan and Marilyn Regan Sachs and her husband Carl, all of Pasadena. The book-shaped birthday cake was a kind of "This Is Your Life" cake with real pictures on it. The children brought realistic glass, like a tire engine, a box of lollipops, a case to hold small change and, of course, lots of hugs and kisses.

The Regans have been in Pasadena this week, while he met with Senator Kennedy and sang the National Anthem at the testimonial dinner for Governor Brown. (Anderson Photo).

Flying Saucers Sighted Over Desert

Joe King, public relations man for El Dorado Palm Estates, adjoining Indian Wells Golf Course, sighted flying saucers yesterday. Investigation revealed not only saucers but plates also were flying. They are being thrown at Sir Reginald by Lady Pamela. Seems that Lady Pamela insisted upon a four bedroom home abutting El Dorado Golf Course, while Sir Reggie was holding out for a three bedroom adjoining the Indian Wells Course. Labor Vote Discussion Set Sunday

Open End Show To Have Three Panel Guests

Walter Reuther, president of UAW and vice president of AFL-CIO; Leon Kayserling, economist; Leo Rosten, social-political scientist, and E. Abel, Washington Bureau, Detroit News, join host-moderator David Susskind for a review of "Insights and Fore-sights," to lead off with the question of the labor movement and the labor vote during KTTV's "Open End" program, Sunday, June 5, 10:15 p.m., Channel 11.

First discussed by the group is the role of the labor movement and labor vote in U.S. politics. Consensus is that the labor vote as such is misinterpreted because labor leadership has either initiated or supported legislation which accrues to the benefit of all the people. Furthermore, and most noticeably with the 1952 election, the working man's vote has shifted back and forth across party lines.

IN DISCUSSING the "deficit in national leadership," the panel will review the national needs such as housing, education, medical care, defense and others that are not being met with sufficient effort — in the opinion of the panel — because of a confusion of values pertaining to so-called priorities.

The need for more leadership and planning is stressed and, also, discussed is the general public's lamentable lack of economic understanding. A misunderstanding, that is, as to what is economically possible.

SOME QUESTIONS posed during the discussion are: Do we require a realignment of political forces? Is increasing conflict within the parties evidence of an evolving realignment? Would such create a clearer party image and encourage a larger, more enlightened popular mandate? Do we fail to understand the essence of the totalitarian challenge presented by Russia and dwell on the moral weaknesses inherent?

The panel reviews our position in relation to Russia's thorough program of planning. The point will be made that Russia plans from the top, maintains a concentrated view of all her problems and utilizes all her resources. If free choice is the price we must pay for freedom, the panel queries, will it be possible for us to develop centralized priorities, or would such be contrary to the democratic process?

The group points out the necessity for greater effort and sacrifice on the part of all. They review the failure to plan and develop thorough-going public policy concerning: The farm problem; international trade; and problems of peacetime economy. Also scrutinized is our foreign policy, Latin-American relations and education.

MUSIC INFLUENCE IS ILLUSTRATED

The impact on American musical development of the music emanating from three foreign capitals — Paris, London and Vienna — will be thoughtfully illustrated on "The American Musical Theatre," Sunday, June 5, 1:30 to 2 p.m., on KNXT, Channel 2.

From Paris came the music of Jacques Offenbach, whose "Overture from Opheus" and "La Vie Parisienne" will be played.

THE BRITISH influence will be evidenced in a rendition of three Gilbert and Sullivan compositions — "When I Was a Lad," from "H. M. S. Pinafore" and "The Moon and I" and "I've Got a Little List," both from "The Mikado."

And, finally, Johann Strauss II, the major composer of Viennese light opera, will be represented with an interpretation of "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief."

Dr. Hefferlin Talks Sunday Before CRS

Sermon 'What Do You Expect' Slated For Sunday Service

"What Do You Expect?" is the subject chosen for his sermon Sunday for the Church of Religious Science of Palm Springs by Dr. John Hefferlin, at present minister of the Religious Science Church at Long Beach, California. The Scripture Lesson is from St. Mark 11:23-24.

"It is pretty true," said Dr. Hefferlin, "that we seldom get what we want but we usually get what we expect. Thus, the purpose of all prayer and meditation is to coordinate and bring together our desires and expectations."

Dr. Hefferlin has indicated his acceptance of the invitation of the local Religious Science Church to become its permanent Minister next season, commencing October 1st. Construction of the new Hefferlin residence will begin the latter part of the summer and the local members of the congregation are anticipating an increased interest in the Church with the arrival of the new Minister.

RELIGIOUS SCIENCE services have been held each Sunday in the Plaza Theatre, commencing at 11:00 o'clock, preceded by 15 minutes of beautiful prelude music by Con Maffie, local organist.

All are welcome and invited to attend this service, which will close the activities of the Church until the first Sunday in October.

CC Community Will Observe Pentecost Rite

CATHEDRAL CITY—Pentecost Sunday will be observed by the Community Church of Cathedral City at the 9:30 a.m. worship service.

The Rev. James Arnold, pastor, will speak on the topic "Christian Unity—Our Common Calling."

This year is the fiftieth anniversary of the First World Missionary Conference at Edinburgh, Scotland. The text is taken from Colossians 2:19: "... The whole body ... grows with a growth that is from God."

The Chancel Choir will sing "None Other Lamb" by Marshall. Sunday School also is held at 9:30 a.m.

The Senior High Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m.

PD Community Sets New Series

McLain has announced the start of a series of sermons to start through the four Sundays of June entitled "Question's People Ask."

The first sermon will be titled: "Why Are We Here?" and will be heard at the Palm Desert Community Church Sunday morning.

There will be no evening service. At the morning services also, Vlado DeSsey will play a violin solo "Meditation" by Thais.

Private Accommodations

SONE HARBOR, N.J. (UPI)—Robert Rice, a marine engineer from Miami, is spending two months all by himself in an 80-room hotel here.

The owners of the Shelter Haven Hotel were to close the place at the end of the summer season when they remembered the 50-year-old Rice had a reservation through November. So they let him stay on, leaving the key and two maids to take care of general dining and the guest's room.

Drug Costs Reported

NEW YORK (UPI)—For persons 65 and older the average annual expenditure for prescriptions was $33 each last year, against a $13 average for persons of all ages, according to the Drug Topics annual prescription survey.

CAUSE CREATOR SET FOR SCIENTISTS

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the keynote of the Lesson - Sermon on Sunday in all Christian Science churches emphasizing the spiritual foundation of the universe including man. The Golden Text is from Isaiah (45:18): "Thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else."

Opening selections from the Bible will include this verse also from Isaiah (46:9): "Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me."

Mary Baker Eddy declares in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self - existence. He is all-inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as infinite Spirit or Mind." (Page 331)

PILOT POWERS

Only Reds Don't Love 'Spy Pilot'

By JACK V. FOX

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. — (UPI)—Barbara Gay Powers wanted her suitor to quit flying before she would marry him. But Francis Powers told her she would have to take the Air Force and flying, too, if she wanted him—and she did.

The striking, dark-haired Georgia girl, now 24 but only 18 when she married, has borne up well waiting for news of the fate of U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, now in Russian hands.

MRS. POWERS HAS gone into seclusion, spending part of her time here in the tiny green and white cottage of her mother, Mrs. Monteen Brown, and at the home of her married sister in Albany, Ga.

Mrs. Powers no doubt knows a great deal about her husband's high altitude flights over Russia from Adana, Turkey, where he was based. But government and Lockheed officials obviously have warned her to say absolutely nothing.

AT THE ONE NEWS conference she held, she said her husband was not a "spy." It surprised listeners because the U.S. Government has admitted Powers was making photographic espionage flights. It probably is a matter of her definition of the word.

Typical of his shyness with girls, Powers met Barbara through her mother. He was an F-84 Thunderbolt pilot with the 48th Fighter Squadron of the Strategic Air Force Base outside Albany.

MRS. BROWN WORKED in the base cafeteria—and as he so often did with older women—the young man endeared himself to her. Mrs. Brown brought her young daughter to meet the handsome pilot from the Virginia Hills and their courtship was swift.

Mrs. Powers calls her husband Gary—not Francis.

They were married in 1954. The girl didn't want any children so long as her husband was flying and they have had none. In 1956, Powers resigned his commission with the Air Force and took a job as "test pilot" with Lockheed Aircraft.

POWERS WAS A top-notch fighter pilot, one of the top six in his squadron. But his record was not particularly distinguished. His only decoration was the National Defense Service Medal, given to all men in service during the Korean War whether they were in combat or not. He never was.

But there was something extra about the young man that led Lockheed and the Central Intelligence Agency to assign him to one of the most dangerous and delicate of missions.

Evolution, Destiny Topic for Baha'is

"Human Evolution and Man's Destiny" will be the topic for discussion at the weekly meeting of the Baha'i Community of Palm Springs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hendershot, 1975 El Oro Way, at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, June 4.

Mrs. Hendershot will present the teachings of the Baha'i Faith on evolution and show how they are in accord with the theories of such noted scientist as LeCompte du Noy. Hendershot will lead the discussion which will follow.

The public is invited to attend.

Pirates Blank Phils, Stay 2 Up

L.A. Blows To Cubs In Tenth

By United Press International
The Pirates are using strong-arm methods but no one can stop them because they've got the Law on their side.
That would be 30-year-old Vern Law, an ordained minister of the Mormon Church and a pitcher without a peer right now in either of the major leagues.

LAW, WHO HAS been beaten only once, became the first big league pitcher to win eight games this season when he blanked the Phillies, 3-0, Friday night. The Pittsburgh ace yielded eight singles and walked one batter to lead the Pirates to their sixth straight victory and keep them two games in front of the pack. The Phillies lost not only the game but also the services of shortstop Joe Koppe, who will be sidelined six to eight weeks as a result of injuries received when he collided with teammate Tony Curry. Koppe dislocated his right wrist and Curry was suffering from shock.

THE GIANTS defeated the Cardinals 3-2, the Braves beat the Reds, 6-4, and the Cubs scored a 10-inning 5-3 win over the Dodgers.

In the American League, the Indians climbed to within 1 1/2 games of first place with a 6-2 victory over the Tigers, the Senators cooled off the league-leading Orioles, 4-1, the Athletics downed the White Sox, 7-2, and the Yankees broke a three-game losing streak with a 4-3 decision over the Red Sox.

Stakes Value Hiked
CAMDEN, N.J. (UPI)—The added value of the Garden State Stakes, world's richest horse race will be boosted from $100,000 to $125,000 for its 1961 running.

HOGAN FIRES SIZZLING 66, MOVES UP IN MEMPHIS OPEN

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Ben Hogan, tied for the lead in the $30,000 Memphis Open golf tournament, stalked the fairways today in his bid to turn back the clock and renew his acquaintance with victory.

Hogan, 48 years old golfing immortal from Fort Worth, Tex., flashed his old mastery Friday by turning in a second straight 66 and bouncing into a three-stroke advantage at 132 with Bob Rosburg and J. C. Goosie.

ALMOST UNCANNILY accurate from tee to green, Hogan showed signs of eliminating the putting troubles caused by inactivity on the golfing circuit.

He lofted a 25-foot sand wedge shot into the cup for a birdie on the first hole to thrill 3,000 following him around the Colonial Country Club course.

Goosie, 31, of Knoxville, Tenn., toured the front nine in regulation figures, but burned up the home nine in five under par 31 to earn a 65.

ROSBURG, THE ONLY first day leader to keep his position, steadied his game considerably after Friday's scrambling performance.

The 33-year-old PGA champion from Overland Park, Kan., hit 16 greens in regulation figures to post his 68.

Ken Venturi and Bill Collins were within striking distance at 135. Tied at 136 were Bob Shave, Bo Winniger, Bob Goalby, Don January and Gary Player.

Rawls, Ziske Top Wolverine Open

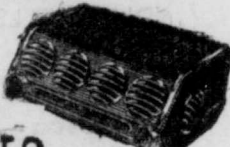

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (UPI)—Betsy Rawls and Joyce Ziske, a pair of "Brides maids" who have been consistently close but have seldom won on the 1960 tour, led the field today into the second and third rounds of the Women's Wolverine Open.

Miss Rawls and Miss Ziske humbled the long, demanding Hillcrest Course Friday with two-under-par 73's to share a three-stroke lead in the first round of the $7,500 tournament.

Wall, Casper in Buick

FLINT, Mich. (UPI)—Art Wall Jr., and Billy Casper, winners of the first two Buick Open golf tournaments, today entered this year's renewal scheduled at the Warwick Hills golf and country club, July 1-4.

Chargers Sign Nix

ATLANTA, Ga. (UPI)—Frank Nix, Georgia Tech halfback, has signed with the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League. Nix dropped college football after getting married.

Griffith Certain To Have Rematch With Fernandez

NEW YORK (UPI)—Welterweights Emile Griffith and Jorge Fernandez were practically rematched today for a return 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden July 19 because of the near-not started Friday night by Griffith's unpopular split decision at St. Nicholas Arena.

Chairs and rubbish were hurled from the gallery into the ring and press section when it was announced that clever Griffith, 22, New York, had won the 10-round verdict over slugger Fernandez, 24, of Argentina in their national television fight.

Nat Gold, Western Union operator for United Press International, was struck in the back, between the shoulder blades, by a flying chair; but he gamely continued sending.

The crowd of 1,261 booed the decision for more than five minutes, and some of the galleryites who weren't throwing chairs, were refreshing them up. Special police finally quieted the demonstrators.

There was no report of anyone being hospitalized.

Boston in Record Broad Jump Try

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (UPI)—Ralph Boston's Olympic hopes were buoyed Friday night by his record-shattering win in the NALIA broad jump championships.

His 25-foot, 7 1/4 inch jump was one of four records set under near perfect weather conditions on the opening night of the ninth annual NALIA track and field championships.

Titans Get Harris

NEW YORK (UPI)—Marshall Harris, a Texas Christian halfback who was drafted ninth by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League, signed today with the New York Titans of the American League. Harris stands 6-1 and weighs 190 pounds.

BEATTY IN FAST 5,000 AT COMPTON

COMPTON, Calif. (UPI)—Uncle Sam's Olympic games prospects never looked better in the distances than today following little Jim Beatty's second record-setting performance in a space of six days.

The 128-pound, 5-6 ball of track energy highlighted the 21st annual Compton Invitational meet Friday night with a sparkling 13:51.7, 5,000 meters—the fastest a U.S. trackman has ever run the distance.

THE STARTLING exhibition came less than a week after the 25-year-old hawk-faced Beatty stepped off a 3:58 mile at the California Relays in Modesto, Calif.

While the cheers went mainly to Beatty and Boston University's John Thomas, who beat the est-

NYSAC Okehs Ray's Bout Vs. Pender

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York state Athletic Commission has suspended Sugar Ray Robinson but will recognize his bout with Paul Pender at Boston next Friday night as a world middleweight championship contest.

The commission suspended Robinson Thursday for his failure to go through with a fight against Pedro Gonzales at Baltimore May 16. The Maryland Commission suspended Robinson May 19 and the National Boxing Assn., which does not include the New York and Massachusetts Commissions, immediately concurred.

Olympic Stadia Ready for Games

ROME (UPI)—All stadiums and other facilities for the 1960 Olympic Games will be ready for the world's athletes when the village for housing them is officially opened today at a simple ceremony. The games don't begin until Aug. 25.
